The Vickers Memorial Ministry Fund was established from monies received from the sale of His Place, 724 Harrison Avenue in Helena. Funds shall be spent from the interest only. The corpus amount of $415,098.91 shall not be spent.

Funds shall be spent for any diocesan programming that benefits and enhances the ministry of the diocese with emphasis on healing and retreats. Funds will not be spent to benefit individuals, buildings, or capital improvements. Monies from this fund will be used to help fund programs that advance the mission of the church. Funds may take the form of a grant or a loan at the discretion of the Bishop and the Finance Department.

The Bishop and Finance Department shall approve spending of the funds. Council and the Finance Department will receive a quarterly report detailing the use of the funds. Fund recipients shall submit a grant report form on June 1 and December 1 each year until funds are spent.

Funding requests are subject to the availability of fund resources.
